CALL TO CONFESSION:

Brian Aldrich

To be forgiven is simple, we only need to turn toward God with open hearts that seek God's healing. But to seek forgiveness is often hard for us. It requires us to acknowledge that we have failed to be the people God has created us to be, to put aside our pride and confess those things that we done, or left undone, that distance us from God. Take a moment, in silence, to turn toward God with open hearts and then let us pray together.

(we begin with a moment of silence for personal confession)

PRAYER OF CONFESSION:

(unison)

Eternal God, we find it easy to lose ourselves in the routines of the every day. We work hard to keep you at a distance from our lives, our relationships and our values.

Forgive us, and clear away from our minds the clouds of self-serving prejudice and nostalgia through which we view the past.

Clear away from our dreams the clouds of greed and arrogance through which we view the future.

Help us, by your Sacred gifts of Memory and Vision, to see today for the precious gift that it contains.

Allow us to rise above old sins, future fears and daily trivialities, so that we might truly live our lives in peace and service for Christ's name. Amen.

ASSURANCE OF PARDON:

Pastor Jack

We find the assurance of our forgiveness in these words: God has loved the whole world so deeply that he sent his son into the world to seek and save the whole world. By our faith in him, we are found, we are healed, we are saved. This is the Good News, believe it and live in peace. Amen!

As a forgiven people, people whose hearts are filled with peace, please stand and greet one another with that peace that increases the more it is shared.
